

BEHOLD YOUR KING; THE MESSIAH COMETH.

In the face of the boasted intelligence of the nineteenth and twentieth century and the corrupt corporations of power that be on the earth the quick message comes to the Jew and to the Gentile, and the corrupt corporations of power that be on the earth the quick message comes to the Jew and to the Gentile.

Behold your Kinz:

This message comes from an humble believer in Jesus Christ, our Lord and our God. He comes with no reputation of this world save that of a farmer (the burden-bearer an ass of all professions, so considered), with unequaled faith, having the mind of Christ. He makes this bold ascension from the farm to the Throne. His name is Bethel. He comes as the greatest and last of all prophets to fulfill the Scriptures and to prepare His people, for whom He has died, to meet their Lord, the Great God, who is coming soon in great power and judgment upon the earth. The organizations of man, religious and political, have been weighed in the scales and found wanting.

The man whom the politicians, not the people, have rejected is our choice for President. As we are not entitled to a vote in this election, we merely mention our favorite who will be, we believe, our chief executive sooner or later. He being the most woriny advocate of monetary principles which we believe are the best adapted to the welfare of our mation under the present regime. It is our people who are wrong, however, and not the monetary system upon which we act, but of necessity a change must come in our monetary system before it can be effectually wrought in the people, "Man shall not be crucified upon a cross of Gold" has not been spoken in vain.

As to our right in the Scriptural or spiritual world, we refer you to Gen. xxviii, Hosca x, and from Samuel on down all the Prophets foretell of these days and speak of Bethel and his mission. The nation is up against the real thing. The scriptures tell us where the cagles are gathered together there will be the area here to invite the wise men of the world to come and divises a Over description.

are gathered together there will be the carcass also."

Let him that is wise understand. We are here to invite the wise men of the world to come and judge us. Our doctrine is that of Jesus Christ as contained in the New Testament. We claim to be a man in every sense of the word, lead ov the Spirit of the New Testament. All we claim in that line is that we have won the race and were found watching when our Lord came, and of course, we cannot refuse the reward that comes with it. We leave a number of Pamphlets in this office which will give any one interested the outlines of what we have suffered, that we might be a public benefactor. We would be glad to meet any minister of Christ at any time they come; will give our address in the paper as soon as we locate. I am a Gentile by birth, but a Jew in religion, for salvation is of the Jews; was born in North Carolina in the year 1881; came to Texas in 1881, where I have lived ever since. I am now in St. Louis.

Big Player on C. B. C. Eleven Relieved of Uniform After Breaking Training.

W. U. HAS SIGNAL PRACTICE.

St. Louis University Preparing for Contest With Missouri Tigers-Pechmann Out of the Game.

As a result of breaking training when reprimanded, Wynne, the heavy guard of the Christian Brothers College team, was relieved of his uniform by Coach Wilbur yesterday and told not to play again this

Coach Wilbur says that Wynne has broken the rules of training several times, but has been excused on promise of doing better, until yesterday, when he was expelled from the football squad.

Wynne was a good player and figured prominently in the games played by C. B. C. this season. At guard he formed a good Hagan or Harley will probably prove as good at the position as did Wynne, although neither is as beefy as the former guard. After Wilbur lectured Wynne and then released him, he informed the other members of the team that the same action would be taken, no matter how good the

"I will maintain discipline if I lose every game I play this season," added the big coach.

The team went through a half hour's work yesterday afternoon and then retired, as the rain began falling. Coach Wilbur was out in uniform for the first time in several weeks. He says that he intends doing this from now on, and the boys know that this means harder work in practicing.

The team will play the Rolla School of Mines at the latter place Saturday, and while little has been heard of the out-of-town eleven, it is understood at the college that they have a heavy and fast team.

Coach Wilbur thinks that his team has improved since its last game, and while Wynne's absence will reduce the line in weight, he expects the team to put ap a Manual Training School did not report at the college campus for practice yesterday, the rain keeping the boys from going on the field. The Washington avenue boys are gradually becoming used to the hard knocks that they are receiving at the hands of the college boys in the practice and the coach says that this will benefit them in games with heavier teams.

WASHINGTON U. PRACTICES.

Washington University players went through signal practice at League Park yesterday afternoon, and are fast rounding into shape for the game with Kansas University at the Stadium Saturday.

Coach Boynton thinks that his team will give the Westerners a hard game, and that there is some chance of his team repeating their trick of last Saturday against the Missouri Tigers.

All the players of the myrtie and maroon team are in shape and have recovered the slight knocks received against the Columbia players. Beynton now has several good backs that he can fall back upon in case of injuries to any of the back-field players. Lehmann, Krause, Smith, Baker and Crisp sre all doing well. Smith or Baker can be shifted to the line in case of accident to any of the ends. Signal work was the card for the St. Louis University players at Sportsman's Park yesterday afternoon. Coach Delancy has his team in tiptop shape for the game against Missouri next Saturday, and is taking no chances on giving his men serimmage work. is taking no chances on giving his men scrimmage work.

Half Back Pechmann, who had his ankle sprained, was limping about the field yesterday. While it is hardly expected that his injury will be healed by Saturday, he will accompany the team to Columbia and will be sent in in case an injury befalls any of the other back-field players.

Captain Lindsay will be played at center, while Pechmann's place at half back will be filled by Irwin from tackle. Reber, whose place is at guard, will move to next position at tackle, while Sub Center Axilne will play guard.

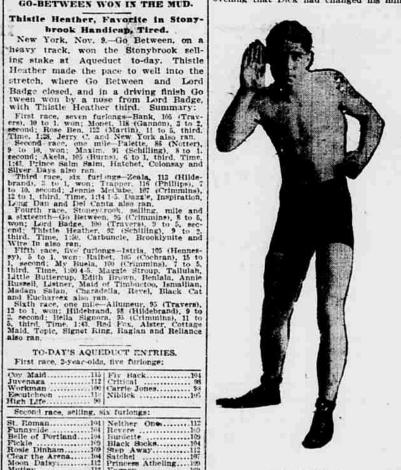

While this shifts the men considerably. Coach Delaney thinks that his team will lave no trouble in defeating the Tigers.

An excursion will be run to Columbia, leaving St. Louis at 8:30, and leaving Columbia at 7:30 Saturday evening. Students and friends of the university players will attend in a body.

GO-BETWEEN WON IN THE MUD. In spite of the fact that Dick Fitzpatrick was announced as an opponent of Barney ing, there will be no fight at that institu-tion. The Chicago man has declined to come to this city and another match has gone glimmering.

Fitzpatrick's refusal to come here makes second case of Furey losing a bout. He was originally carded to box "Honey" Mellody in a fifteen round go, but Mellody decided not to come, sending word of this decision at the eleventh hour.

Fitzpatrick announced that he would come, but his brother, Matty, wired last evening that Dick had changed his mind and could not be here. In reality, it is said that the refusal of the Chicago man to appear was due to the fact that he was denied permission to have a Chicago referse brought here for the go.

Jack Carrie was then talked of as an opponent for Furey, but the club's officials decided that it was best to call the affair off altogether.

Harry Forbes and Abe Attell are men-light. The ending to their last go was unsatisfactory, and the management be-lieves that another fight would prove of interest.

Interest.

There will be no trouble in agreeing in the weight question, as both boys scale about the same at present. Such a contest would decide the question of merit in their last bout, over which there was so much discussion.

Although Root and Ryan are nominally matched in Philadelphia, there is a prospect that this bout may come here. A local club has made a bid for the match and it is said that this city may yet se-cure the go.

Garety crawled to the barracks about 11 o'clock yesterday morning in a serious condition, after lying out in the woods all night. He says that he was returning from a resort in the neighborhood of the barracks with several of his companions when Parrymore asked him to take another road. After leaving the other men Parrymore attacked him the take another road. After leaving the other men Parrymore attacked him with a club and beat him into insensibility.

Garety is suffering from a laceration of the neck, a knife wound which penetrated his lung, and his body is otherwise horribly cut and mutilated. His face is battered aimost beyond recognition. The surgeons at the Army Hospital express little hope for his recovery.

His contrades speak of Garety as a mere boy, quiet and inoffensive. It is said that he was somewhat under the influence of ilquor, and that his companions tried to persuade him to go to the barracks with them Monday night. He is 17 years old, and gives his address as Monrovia, Kas.

The local and Federal authorities are aiding in the effort to find the cavalryman, and every effort will be made by the army authorities to bring him to justice.

The officers at the barracks have succeeded well in suppressing any outbreak on the part of the enlisted men in the barracks, most of whom are highly indignant over the affair.

FUNERAL OF MRS. KENNETT. Obsequies for Former Mayor's Wife Takes Place To-Day.

The funeral of Mrs. Agnes A. Kennett, St years old, of No. 3502 Lucas avenue who was the wife of the late Luthern M. Kennett, Mayor of St. Louis for three terms, commencing in 1850, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Christ Church Cathedral, thence to Bellefontaine

Mrs. Kennett was born in Kentucky, and

Mrs. Kennett was born in Kentucky, and came to St. Louis with her father when quite young. In 1841, when she married Mr. Kennett, he was the first vice president of the original Missouri Pacific Railroad.

Her death was caused by old age. She was surrounded by her three sons, Francis J. Kennett of Chicago and Luther M. Jr. and Charles P. of this city.

Mrs. Kennett, at the time of her death, was the oldest member of Christ Church Cathedral, having joined that church sixty years ago, and always took an active part in all religious work.

Her husband was, besides being Mayor of St. Louis, a member of Congress from his district, defeating the well-known Thomas H. Bentén. He was president of "THE TWO ORPHANS" WILL BE GIVEN AT CENTURY THANKSGIVING WEEK.

The forthcoming revival of "The Two prophans" promises to be one of the nottible events of the theatrical year. Inquiries are being constantly received at the Century as to the time and length of St. Louis run of "Louislana." Orphans" promises to be one of the notable events of the theatrical year. Inquiries are being constantly received at the Century as to the time and length of the engagement. The opening perform-ance will be given November 21, and the revival will continue for one week. The east now includes James O'Neill as Maurice de Vaudrey, Louis James as Jacques Frochard, Grace George as Louise, Clara Morris as Sister Genevieve, Elita Proctor Otis as Mother Frochard, Jameson Lee Finney as Picard, J. E. Dodson as Pierre. Bijou Fernandez as Marianne, and Sarah Truax as Henriette. A. M. Palmer, who first produced the famous old play in this country, is directing the tour. Through the interference of "Weather-Seaten Benson," which comes to the Century next week, Exra Kendall has parted from his bee-gum hat. The separation has aused consternation among his old friends. "I don't want people to believe that I carry my brains in that tall hat," said Mr. Kendall the other day, when asked

Mr. Kendall the other day, when asked why.

"Now, don't you think it is better for me to be criticised for laying it aside than it is for them to complain that I can't act without it?"

"I would rather have them say, 'Why doesn't he wear the hat?' than to have them say. There's Kendall with that same old hat. I wonder if the man can't act without it?' You see, I want to be regarded as something more than 'the funniest thing you ever saw.' That's a nice thing to say about a man isn't it?

"As a joker a man can't live forever. Not that I want to live forever, but I want to live some time and live while I do live. A man with six small children to take care of has to have his eyes open for a living.

"I believe firmly that there is always To believe firmly that there is aways room for the homely play which carries the laugh with it. People may enjoy and laugh at musical comedies and French farces and society plays, but for all those they will always find a place for the homemade play with the homespun characters."

"Did you get next to Howard Thurston's tricks?" This is a much-asked ques tion about the Columbia, for everybody is puzzled by his magic. Someone has calle im an illogical illusionist, because he doesn't do things like other wizards. Chardoesn't do things like other wizarus. Charmion, the aerial artiste, is another favorite. Campbell and Johnson, the Empire
Comedy Four, Lynn Welcher, the Tamakas, Ziska and King, Lavender and Tomson, Clara Hess, Excela and the Le Chartiers lend variety to the show.

The story of "Ben Hur" lends itself ad-nirably to musical treatment. Composer Kelley, an authority on Oriental and ancient Greek music, has solved the problem to clothe themes built on ancient and Orito clothe themes built on ancient and Oriental scales in modern harmonic and orchestral garb and to preserve absolute homogeneity throughout. The successful welding and molding of the material furnished by the composer into the present production is the work of A. L. Erlanger. By looking over the score as a whole it will be found that the composer has invented his themes with regard to the chief incidents of the piay, and has drawn from these themes for the respective scenes. The result of an analysis reveals the following main themes:

1. The Prophecy.

1. The Prophecy.
2. The Star in the East.
3. The Mazi in the Desert.
4. Ben Hur.
5. The Power of Rome.
6. The Vengeance.
7. The Finale.

The most delightful melody is that given uring the Mound of Olives scene in the Kiralfy's production at the Odeon is now the only "Louisiana" in the city. In its closing weeks it loses nothing of the spectacular beauties. Beginning with the opening of the Fair, its management promised the public it would continue until the Exposition's close, and as a consequence the announcement declaring the Fair's end will also conclude Kirality's "Louisiana." Up to within a short time ago a tour throughout the country with Kirality's Louisiana Purchase spectacle was contemplated, and a route was mapped accordingly, but when it was discovered that the production could not be given with less than 300 persons, the scheme was necessarly abandoned because of the enormous cost of transportaits closing weeks it loses nothing of the Burton Holmes, whose illustrated lectures or "travelogues," as he now calls n, have grown so rapidly in favor in St. Louis, is soon to give three talks at Y. M. C. A. Hall. The subjects are all new and are said to be more than usually new and are said to be more than usually fine from the pictorial point of view. The titles are "in London," "Beautiful Ireland" and "Japan." Japan has always been a favorite subject with Mr. Holmes, and he is qualified to tell of its people and its cities and rural districts, for he has made it the objective point of many of his journeys in the days gone by and has been there within a comparatively short time. Last spring Mr. Holmes delivered twelve lectures in London, and during his sojourn he availed himself of the opportunity to gather material for the present London travelogue. Later in the summer he spent several months in Ireland.

Mr. Holmes's dates at Association Hall are all on Thursday evenings, December 1, 8 and 15. The German Stock Company will appear next Sunday night in another jolly farce, "Der Loewe des Tages" (The Lion of the Hour), with Director George Heinemann, Leona Bergere and Hans Loebel in the parts of the chief funmakers.

Blanche Bates, now in the fifteenth week of her St. Louis engagement at the mperial Theater, continues to please large audicaces.

Miss Bates's run as Yo-San in "The Darling of the Gods" will come to a close Saturday, December 3.

W. Albert Swasey, the architect who i day that an effort was being made to com plete the new playhouse by Thanksgiving Day, He said he had not heard of any plan on the part of the Shuberts to sell the theater. Current Playbills.

After this week but two more weeks remain of the "Ben-Hur" engagement at the Olympic. The big production will be taken South, and will late enter upon a long run in Chicago. The closing St. Louis performance is to take place Saturday evening, November 25. per 26.

Dockstader's Minstrels at the Century pro vide the liveliest burnt-cork entertainment this ganization has ever offered. It is up-to-date organization has ever offered. It is up-to-date minstrelsy throughout. The boy's band has given way to Neil O'Brien's funny "rapid transit" act. Carroll Johnson gives new coon songs. Manuel Romaine and Matt Keefe are the star balliad vocalists.

Exta Kendall will appear here next week in "Weather-Beaten Benson." the scenes of which are located near the border line between Indian Territory and Oklahoma.

"Up and Down the Pike," a new descriptive composition by Guido Vogel, is a big hit at the Grand Opera-house, where "A Girl From Dixie" is pleasing capacity crowds at every performance. Nat Wills will come to this the-ater next in "A Son of Rest." His company comprises sixty performers, including a large chorus. The piece is a musical comedy, it was one of the successes of the season at the Grand last year.

Coming to the Columbia next week are Olive May and J. W. Albaugh, Howard and Emersay and J. W. Alsaugh, Howard and Emer-son, Allen Curtis and company, the Nelson Farnum Troupe Rooney and Beat, Russell and Lock, Eleanor Falke, Rio Brothers, Lam-bert and Pierce, Wahlund and Tekla, Worden and Gladdish and the Bennett Sisters.

"Siberia" is the attraction at Havlin's. The "Siteria" is the attraction at Havlin's. The Bartley Campbell drams was eelected for presentation at this time because of the scenes depicting the massacre of the Jews in Russia. The second act shows a massacre at Kishenev and the destruction of the Jewish quarter of the town. Electrical effects are employed to produce the fire scene. Henry Clay Blancy in "Across the Pacific" will succeed "Siberia."

Across the Pacific" will succeed "Siberis."

Selma Herman is presenting "Wedded, but No Wife," at the Crawford. The new bill will be "The Midnight Express," a thrilling drama of railroad life. The train employed in the sensational climax of this play is one of the most realistic property imitations ever built for a melodrama.

The Rose Hill Burlesquers will be seen at The Rose Hill Burlesquers will be seen at the Standard after the City Sports company. The performance will begin with a skit called "Knights of the Red Garter." On the vaude-ville olio are Pongo and Leo, acrobats; Kath-erine Palmer, Bianche Newcomb, John E. Caine-and Harry Evans, the Bison City Quartet, and Henrietta Wheeler. "A Senator for an Hour" will be the closing travisty.
